

Alfred was delighted with his visit to Kentucky. Lodge Richard is spending the winter in Dublin. Dubroah is delicate, but full of life.

I intend to spend the winter in Rome. Hope to meet Mrs Cheney there. If you have any other friends, who are likely to be in Rome, for winter or spring, will you kindly give me their names & addresses if suitable.
Please give my love to to Fanny. Hope yet to see her lovely children.
Yours, dear friends, with much affection & recollection.

Miss Harriet Lupton & her sisters desire their kindest regards to you

Hope this will find you at Rockledge safely settled in for the winter which seems to have set in here in the form of Cyclones telegraphed from New York arriving in due course.

Thanks also for the Memoranda Journal with all its interesting reports.

Have been in Iceland since I saw you & shared news of you there with My Webb relatives.

I am staying with my friend Harriet Laplan, & lately saw her also.
I am happy to say her health continues to improve gradually.
Mr. & Mrs. Wicksteed are now living at Craydon, near Sandau, & residing in the neighborhood of their children & grand children.
